

The organization values open and honest communication

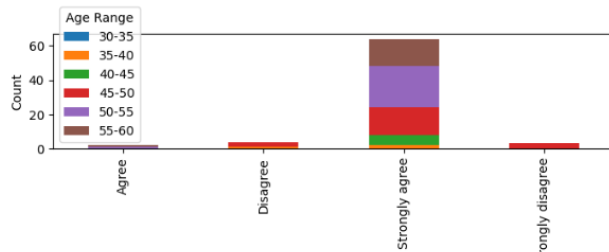

The organization encourages a culture of providing rewards for good work.

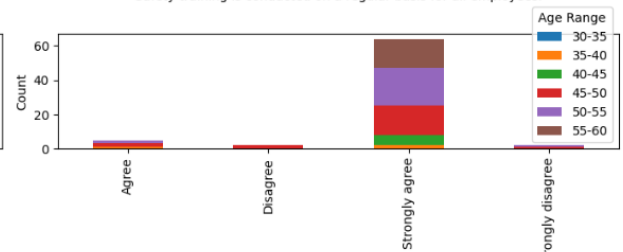

My ideas and opinions are valued by my manager.

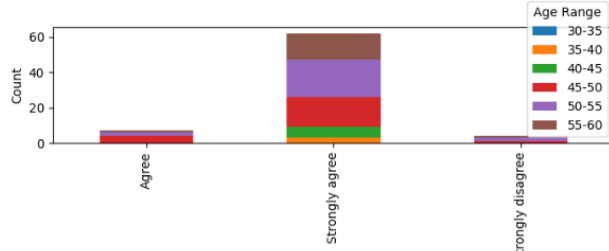

Safety training is conducted on a regular basis for all employees.

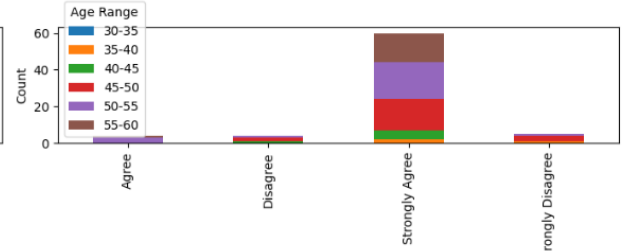

I get the opportunity to participate in a structured training program conducted in the Organization.

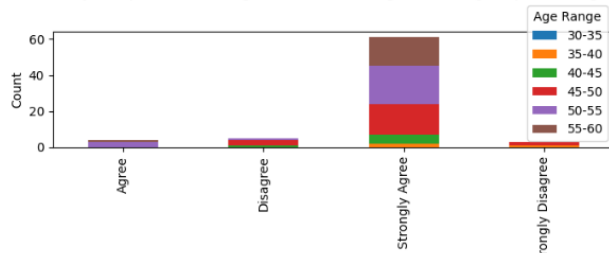

I get on the job training by my supervisor

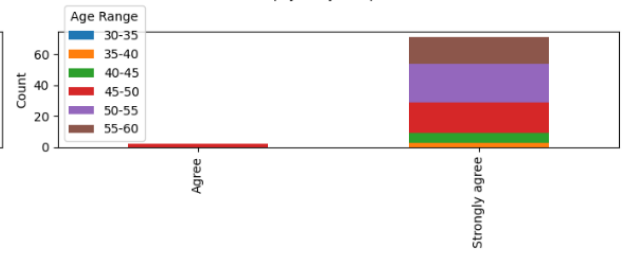

I try to acquire new knowledge and new skills through self learning and peer learning.

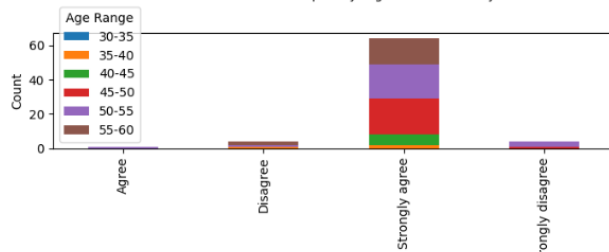

This is a physically safe place to work.

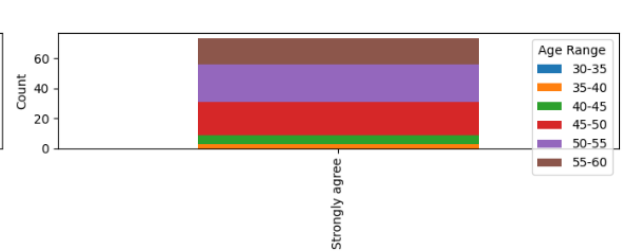

While on work utmost priority is given on the safety

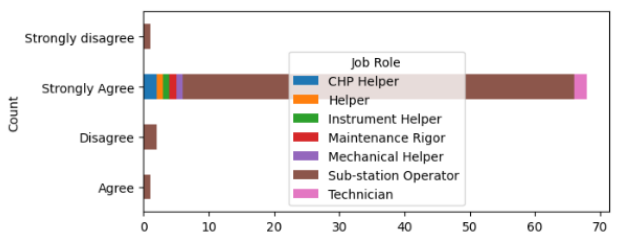

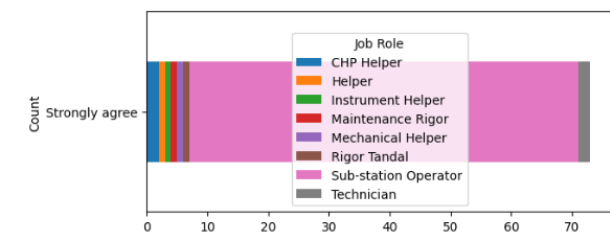

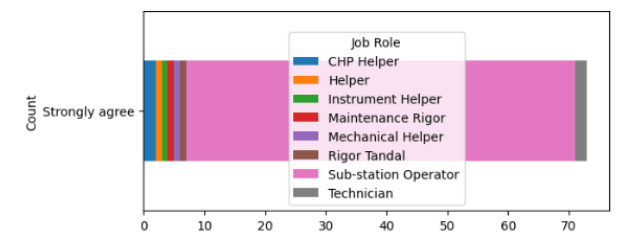

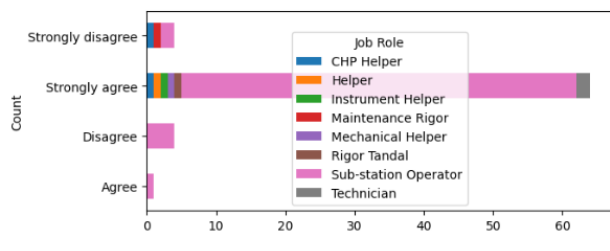

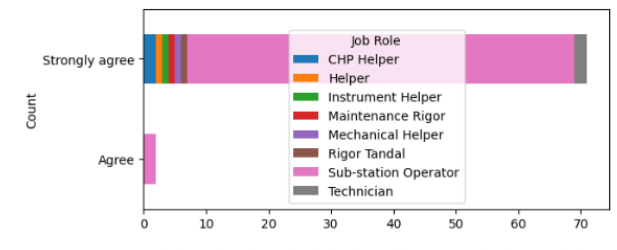

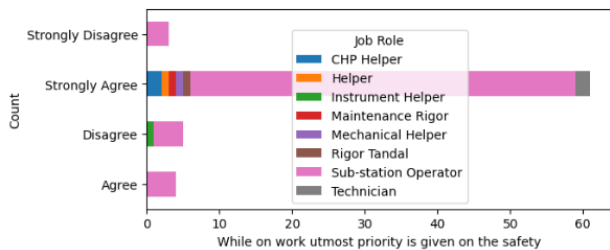

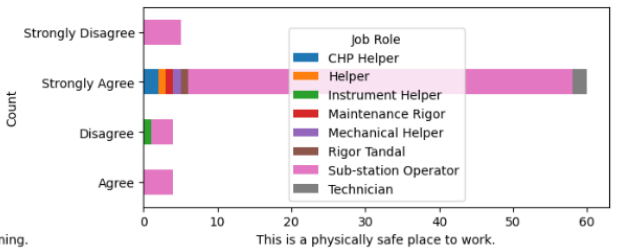

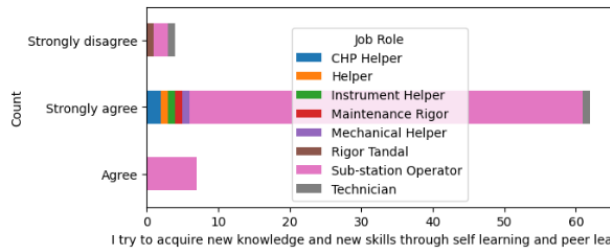

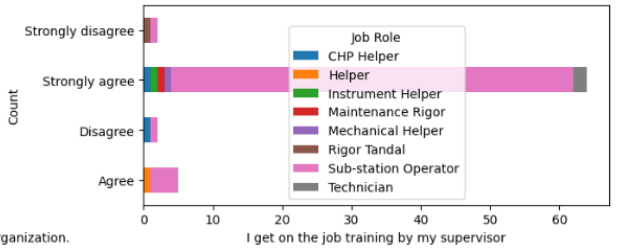

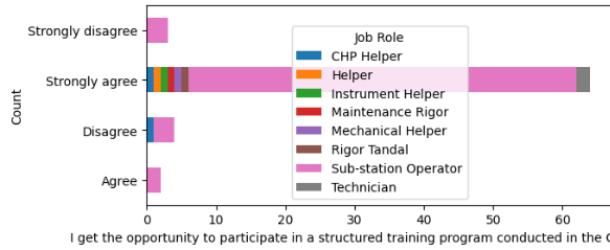

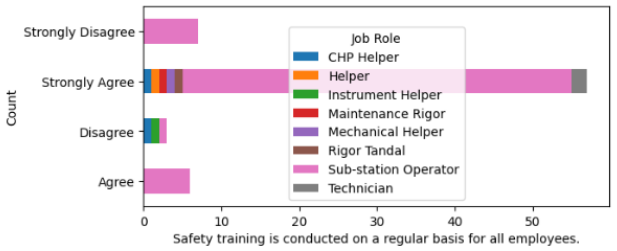

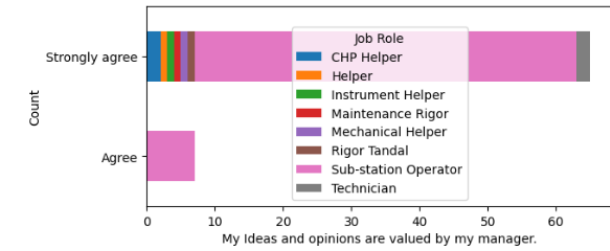

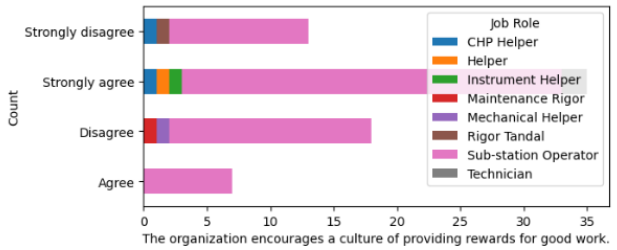

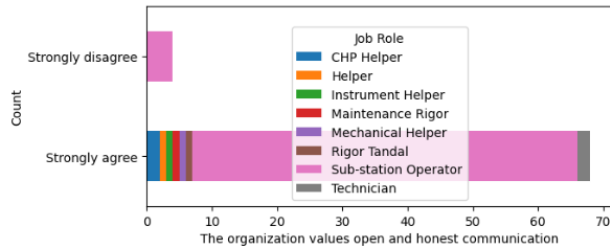

I feel that there is no discrimination and harassment in the organization

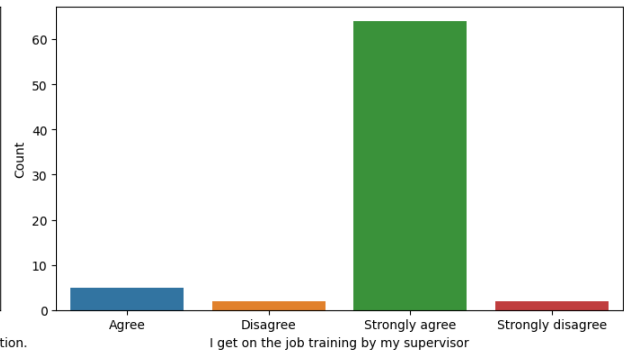

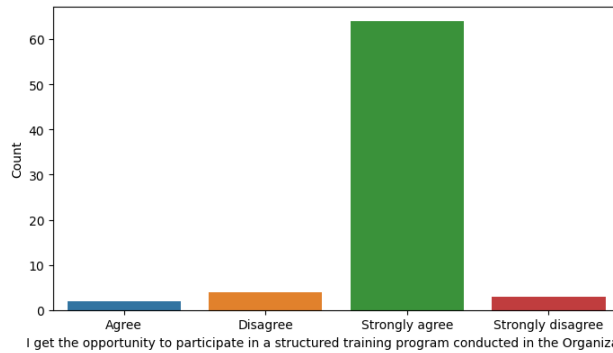

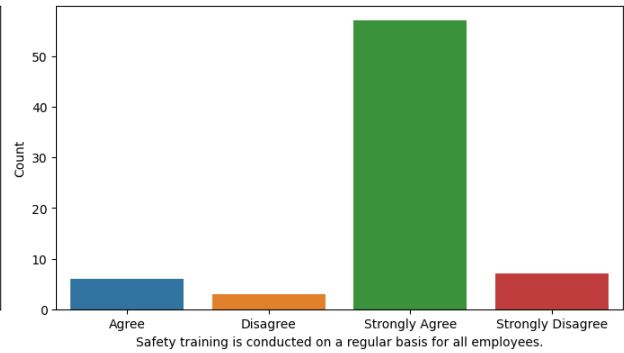

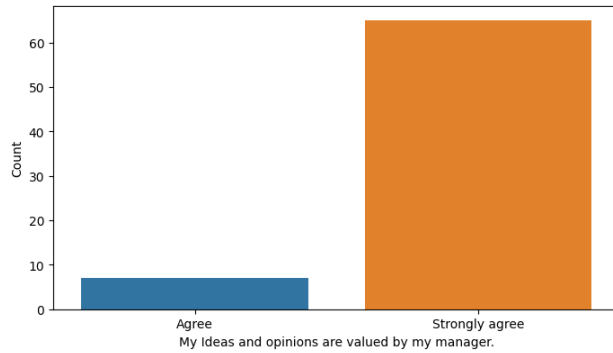

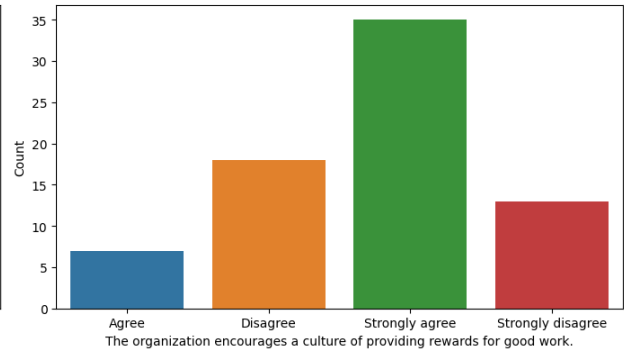

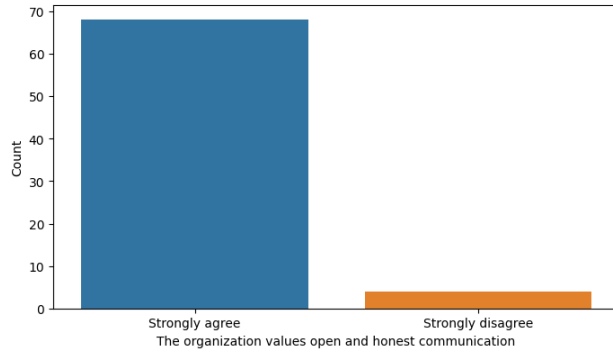

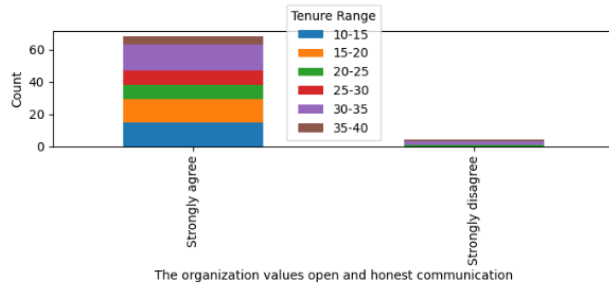

I am satisfied with health insurance and medical insurance provided by the organization.

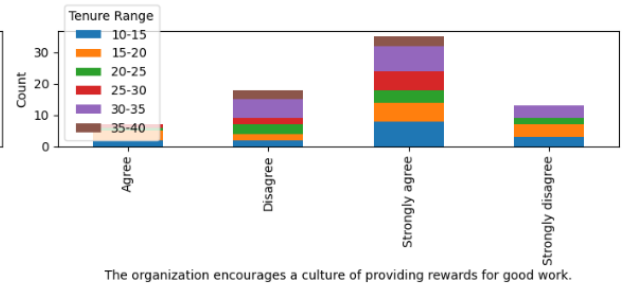

I am satisfied with company's leave policy (sick leave, paid leave etc)
